NBA All Star Raises Money For Big Brothers & Big Sisters

Former Murrah High School standout Mo Williams hosted day one of his annual basketball camp on Wednesday. With the help of local high school coaches in the area, Mo taught the fundamentals of the game to more than 200 kids over at Jackson Academy. Wednesday, Mo switched his focus to the golf course as he hosted a golf scramble at Whisper Lake Country Club in Madison. All proceeds raised this week will be donated to Big Brothers and Big Sisters. Friday night, he hosted his annual silent auction and gala at Rivers Hills Club in Jackson. There he auctioned off just about any piece of sports memorabilia a fan could want. But that wasn't all. He even had music memorabilia and vacation packages.... Everything going to the highest bidder. Mo's foundation week will end Saturday with the last day of his basketball camp
